Criminal Records (Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974)

Do you have any unspent convictions: YES NO

We need to ask you about any unspent convictions as part of our duty of care. A criminal conviction will not necessarily prevent you from becoming a volunteer; the decision will depend on the type of offence and its relevance to the volunteering role. Some roles will also require full criminal record checks. Having a conviction doesn't mean you can't volunteer with us. When we talk about your application we can discuss any convictions then.

Please provide details of 2 referees who have known you for at least 2 years and can tell us whether they think you would be a suitable volunteer:
